PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

I, United States Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Enforcement Officer Liliana De Anda, declare under penalty of perjury the following to be true and correct:

On June 21st, 2008 at about 12:46 AM, Alejandro Felix HERNANDEZ (Defendant) made application for admission into the United States at San Ysidro Port of Entry through the pedestrian entrance. Defendant presented himself for inspection before United States Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Officer. Defendant told the CBP officer he was a United States citizen by virtue of birth in San Bernardino, California. Defendant presented as proof of his identity a California Driver License bearing his name and picture. CBP Officer received a negative customs declaration from Defendant. CBP Officer performed a name query resulting on a computer generated referral. CBP officer referred Defendant to pedestrian secondary area for further inspection.

During a secondary inspection, Defendant was queried by fingerprint and photograph comparison through the Automated Biometric Identification System (IDENT). IDENT record identified Defendant as a citizen of Mexico who has been previously deported/ removed. Defendant's identity was verified by 10-digit fingerprint submission through the Integrated Automated Fingerprint Identification System (IAFIS). IAFIS response linked Defendant to Immigration Service and FBI records.

Checks of Immigration Service records, including the Immigration Central Index System (CIS) and Deportable Alien Control System (DACS) information confirmed Defendant to be a citizen of Mexico with no legal documents to enter the United States. DACS records indicate Defendant was ordered deported/removed by an Immigration Judge from the United States to Mexico on or about June 28th, 2007. DACS also indicates Defendant was subsequently removed from the United States to Mexico through San Ysidro, California.

Immigration Service records contain no evidence that Defendant has applied for or received permission from the Attorney General of the United States, or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security to legally seek reapplication for admission.

Executed on this 21st day of June 2008 at 4:00 AM.
